

TranzCom

TranzCom achieves top Ecovadis Platinum Sustainability Rating

9 November 2020 - TranzCom achieved an EcoVadis score of 76 out of 100 points, placing it in the agency's new top category, comprising 1% of suppliers in the industry segment, the so called 'platinum' status rating. TranzCom will renew its sustainability Ecovadis rating in September 2023.

EcoVadis evaluated TranzCom's sustainability performance according to 21 criteria and four categories, cutting across environment, labor & human rights, ethics and sustainable procurement practices.

TranzCom's sustainability policies, initiatives and results were analyzed using recognized international sustainability standards. EcoVadis assessed more than 60,000 companies in 198 industries and 155 countries.

"This world-class Platinum recognition from EcoVadis shows that TranzCom is committed to its environmental and social goals", dixit Bart Van Der Meersch and Frédéric Devisch. "We're very proud to have embarked on the EcoVadis rating process because it facilitates our drive to integrate Health, Safety, Environment and Quality in our daily process. This award is furthermore a tribute to the dedication of all our colleagues, who take their individually responsibility and put it into practice".

